Details of Registration For All Illinois Draft-Age Men Announced Today

Registrants Will be Classified in One of Four Groups; 2,100,000 Blanks Are Being Printed For This State

Chicago, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Registration of Illinois men between 21 and 35 under the selective service act of October 16 will be conducted by county clerks and election commissioners in the communities where such commissions exist.

Details of registration, formation of draft boards, and deferments were announced today by Adjutant General Lawrence V. Regan of the Illinois National Guard on his return from Washington where he attended a conference of selective service officials.

Registrations will be made in each precinct polling place in the state with owners of the premises and precinct officials being asked to donate their property and services. Regan said he would confer with Chicago election officers to dissuade them from undertaking a proposed plan of registration at schools, fire department stations and other public buildings rather than polling places.

Forms are being printed to announce the location of registration places, with 10 placards to a precinct. Regan said 2,100,000 blanks and registration certificates were being printed for Illinois.

Places To Register
Men should register in the polling place where they ordinarily vote. If they are away from home on October 16, they may register wherever they are and the card will be transferred to the precinct of their residence. County clerks are responsible for the registration of those in schools, colleges, asylums, jails and other public institutions.

Hours of registration will be from 7 a. m. until 9 p. m. A test conducted by the National Guard showed from three to five minutes would be required to register.

Registration cards ask the man's name, age, date of birth, and a brief physical description. The registrant on filling out his card will be given a certificate showing he has registered and a booklet explaining the selective service act. Later he will be mailed a questionnaire, asking in detail statistics on which his deferment status will be determined. These must be answered and returned within five days.

Must Carry Card
The registration certificate is to be carried by the man at all times as proof of registration. It must be shown on demand of any qualified law enforcement officer.

Penalty for failure to register is a $10,000 fine and five-years' imprisonment. After a man has been called to service, he is considered a member of the armed forces and any attempt to evade service will be subject to court martial. Until he has been called his status is that of a civilian and subject to the federal district court.

From time to time Washington officials will call each state for quotas of men for training. Regan said each state would be credited in its quota for men already serving in the nation's armed forces. Illinois will have 284 draft boards of three members each, plus a medical officer for each board. These will be nominated by the governor, confirmed by President Roosevelt and probably will be announced by October 1. Each board will have an appeal board and an advisory board operating in conjunction.

The state director is Paul G. Armstrong, who will have two assistants, still to be appointed. One

MORE JAP TROOPS ENTER HAIPHONG

BULLETIN
London, Sept. 27.—(AP)—A Reuters (British) news agency dispatch from Chungking today said Chinese authorities had declared martial law along the Indo-China border. Persons passing the border are being searched rigidly, the dispatch said.

Haiphong, French Indo-China, Sept. 27.—(AP)—More Japanese troops with full equipment and supplies for a long stay poured into Haiphong in a continuing stream today and six Japanese planes roared low over Hanoi, drawing no anti-aircraft fire but evoking a strong French protest.

The soldiers disembarking at this port today were the follow-up for 2,000 Japanese admitted yesterday under a French-Japanese agreement in which Japan has

46 SURVIVORS OF TORPEDOED LINER RESCUED AT SEA

Plane Spots Lifeboat in Which Group Had Been Drifting 8 Days

(By The Associated Press)
London, Sept. 27.—Back in England today are 46 persons—including six shivering schoolboys—who spent eight days of peril and hardship in a storm-buffed lifeboat after the City of Benares went to the bottom 600 miles out in the Atlantic.

Rescued through the combined work of two British flying boats and a warship, the survivors were landed at a British port late last night.

"We lost all count of time after the first two or three days," said Mary Cornish, 21-year-old school teacher-escort and only woman in the lifeboat.

"But the children were admirable. They passed the time singing and telling stories."

Two hundred and forty-eight of those aboard the Canada-bound City of Benares, 77 of them evacuee children, still are missing and probably are dead. The vessel went down Sept. 17. The British claim she was torpedoed.

Thirteen-year-old Kenneth Sparks was the first to see the Sunderland flying boat of the coast command which sighted the 46 floating in the storm-tossed waters.

"I shouted 'Look! an air-plane!'" Kenneth said. "Everybody looked up and was glad. We started praying. All our children did. The plane circled us. One seaman signalled, and the plane signalled back with a light."

The Sunderland, an Australian air force plane, had just been relieved from convoy escort duty when it found the lifeboat. The pilot flew back to the convoy and asked another Sunderland to take

FDR Nominates 113 Army Men for Promotion

Washington, Sept. 27.—(AP)—President Roosevelt nominated 113 army officers today for temporary promotion to major general and brigadier general to meet requirements of the expanding land forces.

It involves the largest mass promotion of top-ranking officers in peace-time history, officials said. Twenty-eight were nominated for advancement to major general and 85 for promotion to brigadier general.

Topping the long list sent to the Senate was the name of Brigadier General Jay L. Benedict, commander of the military academy at West Point, who was advanced to major general and assigned to command one of the three new army corps planned by the war department.

Brigadier General Edwin M. Watson, the President's aide, was nominated to move up one grade to major general.

Colonel John H. Burns, ordnance expert who is executive officer of the assistant secretary of war, was given a noteworthy promotion to major general, skipping the intermediate grade of brigadier general.

21 Major Generals

The army already has 21 permanent major generals of the line and 50 brigadier generals, aside from 31 who hold one rank or the other temporarily as general staff officers. From the permanent generals are selected the chief of staff, who holds temporarily the

Former Sheriff Is Acquitted by Jury Last Night

The jury in the Lee county circuit court returned a verdict of not guilty in the $40,000 damage suit brought by Charles Konkrite of this city against former Sheriff Ward T. Miller, who is now serving as county treasurer. The trial was completed shortly before 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon and about 8 o'clock the jury returned its verdict.

Konkrite in his action against the former sheriff of Lee county, charged that he had suffered serious injury as a result of having been struck in the head by ex-sheriff Miller, during an argument at the county jail on July 15, 1938. In his action, in which he was represented by Attorneys Robert Bracken and Sherwood Dixon while H. C. Warner and State's Attorney Edward Jones appeared for the plaintiff, Judge Harry Wheat of Freeport, who presided at the trial, excused the jury until Monday.

NAZI INVASION OF BRITAIN IS BELIEVED "OFF"

London, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Evidence that the British high command considers the threatened German invasion of England "off" indefinitely was seen by authentic military quarters today in longer and more frequent—perhaps even nightly—British raids on Berlin.

The R. A. F., which raided Berlin four successive nights this week but not last night, has not announced the new policy officially, but it has been put down as a "certainty" by some sources.

These quarters point out the R. A. F. is not neglecting the "invasion ports" across the channel, but the fact the air force feels it can devote from a policy of concentrating almost exclusively on the German-held channel coast is taken as a sign of "growing confidence."

Military informants said the R. A. F. must feel it has battered the German barge concentrations sufficiently to allay the worry the concentrations caused a few weeks ago.

Chicago Woman Killed In Love Triangle Fight

Chicago, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Miss Myrtle Stevens, 35, was bludgeoned to death and two men were injured seriously early today in a northside apartment hotel as the result of what Detective James Dwyer said was a quarrel over the woman's affection.

The men, Virgil Rawlings, 36, and Jesse Oates, 28, the latter described as a family friend who lived with the other principals in the case, were in Bridewell hospital. Physicians gave Oates little chance for recovery.

Dwyer theorized that Rawlings, angered when he found Oates and the woman in an embrace when he returned from an errand, used the hammer to beat Miss Stevens to death and then inflicted the injuries on Oates with the same weapon.

Then, Dwyer continued, Rawlings made an attempt to end his own life by cutting his throat and turning on the gas in the apartment.

Dixon Fisherman Pulls Big Walleye Out of River

JAPANESE PRESS SEES CLASH WITH U. S. 'INEVITABLE'

Nippon Believes Ban on Scrap Metal Aligns America, Britain

(By The Associated Press)
Tokyo, Sept. 27.—Japanese sources asserted today the United States definitely had aligned herself with Britain and China by clamping down on scrap metal shipments to Japan, and the influential newspaper Asahi said a clash with America "now seems inevitable."

Authoritative circles expressed belief that President Roosevelt's action in limiting scrap metal exports to the western hemisphere and Britain after October 16 was aimed directly at Japan and might be only the prelude to a complete embargo designed to thwart her expansion program.

It generally was expected Foreign Minister Yosuke Matsuoka would deliver to United States Ambassador Joseph C. Grew a strong enunciation of the Japanese view that the new measure is discriminatory.

Yakichiro Suma, foreign office spokesman, declined to comment directly, but recalled that the Japanese ambassador to Washington repeatedly had transmitted to the U. S. state department "our intentions and observations regarding discriminatory measures."

Asahi, commenting upon the scrap metal embargo and the export-import bank's announcement of a new $25,000,000 loan to China, said that "by assisting the Chungking government the United States probably seeks to peg Japan's southward movement."

"See 'Inevitable Clash'"
"It is now seems inevitable," the paper observed, "that a clash will occur. Every day is determined to establish a sphere of self-sufficiency and a United States equally determined to meddle in affairs on the other side of a vast ocean with every hostile means short of war."

Posters, printed in Japanese and English, appeared meanwhile near the United States embassy declaring "Japan won't permit Britain or the United States to interfere in east Asia" and asserting "firm determination is needed to safeguard Japan's southern lifeline from the United States."

Informed sources said the scrap metal embargo long had been expected, and "suitable measures" had been taken to prepare Japanese industry to withstand the shock. The effect of the embargo, therefore, will be relatively unimportant, these sources contended.

The Japanese stock market remained steady after the embargo announcement, and iron, steel, metal and machinery shares were unchanged from strong closing quotations yesterday.

Laborer Kills Self Today at Creston Home

(Telegraph Special Service)
Rochelle, Sept. 27.—James Garfield Grumstad, 40 year old laborer, living at Creston, committed suicide this morning about 3 o'clock by shooting himself in the head. The tragedy occurred in the Grumstad home in which the victim was born 40 years ago and has lived in all his life.

No reason for the act could be learned, and the body was removed to the Unger funeral home at Rochelle where Dr. J. C. Akin of Forrester, Ogle county coroner conducted an inquest at 10:30 this morning. The obituary and funeral announcement will be published later.

Recruiting Officer is Mistaken for Policeman

Cars reported to have been driven by Lieut. Stephen Steib of the local U. S. Army recruiting station and George A. Reynolds of north of Grand Detour, figured in a collision at River street and Hennepin avenue yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock.

After the crash, Reynolds is reported to have left the scene and the recruiting officer followed in pursuit. At Grand Detour, Reynolds stopped and the lieutenant attempted to secure the driver's name. According to the recruiting officer, Reynolds glanced at the lieutenant's uniform and after giving his name added, "I'm a Roosevelt man too."

Action Is Described as Move to Forestall U.S. Entry in European War

Other Nations Are Warned Against "Dangerous Adventure" of Meddling With Aims of the Triple Alliance in Two Continents

BULLETIN
Washington, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Secretary Hull said today that Japan's alliance with the German-Italian axis merely made clear "a relationship which has long existed in effect" and which the United States had taken into account in determining its own policies.

Hull made this comment in a brief formal statement to a press conference.

By LOUIS P. LOCHNER
Berlin, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Germany, Italy and Japan proclaimed to the world today a new political, economic and military treaty guaranteeing each other assistance in the event any other nation—undoubtedly referring to the United States—enters the European war.

The treaty was signed at the chancellery in the presence of Fuehrer Hitler. The pact recognized the dominance of Germany and Italy in the establishment of a new order in Europe.

Japan was given recognition as the leader in the establishment of a new order in "the realm of greater Asia."

To neutral observers the most obvious effect of the treaty was to insure that should the United States enter the war she would be immediately engaged in the Pacific—under the terms of the mutual assistance clause—with a fleet so big that she would be unable to come to Britain's aid in the Atlantic or Mediterranean. (The Japanese navy is the world's third largest, almost equal to the German and Italian combined.)

The War Today!

By DE WITT MACKENZIE

We shall do well to count 10 before jumping to conclusions regarding Japan's position under the pact signed today between Tokyo, Berlin and Rome, though it seems clear that one of the chief purposes of this agreement is to keep America from giving England military assistance.

Beyond that the pact with a sweeping gesture divides Europe and Asia up among the three powers, but since the value of such an agreement depends on developments it is safe to say that the signatories put their names to it with tongues in cheeks. Japan can have no delusions about being left alone in possession of far eastern domination.

The Japanese position is as full of mysterious potentialities as a grab-bag at a church fair. There are some things, however, which stand out very clearly.

One fundamental fact from my viewpoint is that Japan is fully determined to establish hegemony over eastern Asia at all costs. Nothing will stop her so long as her powerful military machine continues to function.

The sensational deeds of Messrs Hitler and Mussolini, and their nearness geographically, rather tend to make us forget that the Japanese are the original go-getters among our present expansionists. It was Japan who broke the ice for expansion by force.

Back in 1931, when Hitler wasn't yet a dictator and Mussolini stood only knee-high to a field-gun, the Japanese defied the entire world and invaded Manchuria. The League of Nations fumed and damned, but Nippon got away with it—or so it would seem. That lesson was in no small measure responsible for the conquests of Hitler and Mussolini.

The American embargo on iron and steel is a heavy blow for Japan on the state ceremonies.

At the farther end of the hall, next to the door to offices of the cabinet and Fuehrer Hitler, stood a long table with microphones and three leather armchairs—the center one for German Foreign Minister Von Ribbentrop, the one to his right for Italian Foreign Minister Ciano and the one to his left for Saburo Kurusu, Japanese ambassador to Germany.

Be-medaled and uniformed military and diplomatic representatives ranked back of the chairs formed an impressive background for signature of the far-reaching agreement.

The ceremony of signature began at 1:15 p. m. (5:15 a. m., C. S. T.)

Two minutes later the door to the right of the long table opened again and the major dome struck the floor thrice with his heavy mace and then Hitler, his face pale and serious, entered.

Von Ribbentrop met him at the door, saluted and said: "My Fuehrer, I report the signing of the agreement."

FDR FORECASTS ELECTION RESULT

Washington, Sept. 27.—(AP)—President Roosevelt told a press conference today he had forecast the outcome of the November election.

In response to a question, the president said the prediction was in a sealed envelope in his desk.

Then, with a smile, he added that he always understated things.

Mr. Roosevelt has made similar forecasts prior to the 1932 and 1936 elections, but has guarded them very closely.

(After the 1936 election, Mr. Roosevelt disclosed that in January, his forecast had been 325 electoral votes for the Democratic ticket and 205 for the Republican; on June 5, it was 315 to 218; on August 2, Mr. Roosevelt revised his prediction to "FDR 344, AML 191". On the Sunday before the election, he made it "FDR 360, AML 171." The actual electoral vote was 523 for Roosevelt; 8 for Alf M. Landen of Kansas.)

New Secret Device Used in London Area to Combat Nazi Night Raiders

London, Sept. 27.—(AP)—New secret devices with which to combat night raiders were reported today in use in the London area which last night had one of the lightest night raids in the three weeks since the air "blitz" began.

The devices were said to have been developed by British scientists. Observers declared there was a chance that, used together, two of the devices might make night bombing as hazardous as raiding by day.

There was no immediate indication whether the new weapons were responsible for the softening of the German blows on the capital, and there were no intimations of their nature.

In a gradual lifting of the curtain of censorship, however, British correspondents were permitted to comment upon these new air-raid noises heard by Londoners in the past few nights.

1. A heavy single explosion disintegrating into staccato cracks high up in the heavens.

2. A flat roar which seems to strike a ceiling several miles up and bumps its way clamorously along the top of the sky.

3. A muffled rattling like a "carpet slipper machine-gun."

"These queer noises to which Londoners have listened with increasing interest and speculation are in fact caused by new types of weapons, or by well-tried weapons adopted to new uses," said one observer.

He mentioned "another new weapon which makes very little noise except an odd rustle like the froufrou of a taffeta gown."

Women's Society

On Wednesday afternoon the women of the Paw Paw Methodist church held their charter meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service. They assembled in the sanctuary where the pastor stated the purpose of the meeting. A brief statement was given as to the need of the one organization of women's work growing out of the plans of women's work in the other two uniting churches recently accomplished at Kansas City and Atlantic City. The new Women's Society of Christian Service will have about four million members, possibly more.

On the call for enrollment of members, the women came forward under the leadership of six women: Mrs. Gertie Smith, Mrs. Sadie Betz, Mrs. Julian Barth, Mrs. Louise Valentine, Mrs. Gertie Ramey, and Mrs. Lillie Wright. Each of these ladies stated part of the Society's real purpose and the entire congregation sang appropriate hymns. When each new member had signed in the secretary's new record book, the pastor led in a word of prayer and the whole group joined in singing the doxology.

Light refreshments were served after the election of officers. There were about 75 new charter members signed, and the new officers elected for the organization are: Mrs. Gladys Barton, president; Mrs. Gertie Smith, vice president; Mrs. Eunice Davison, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Amy Rosenkrans, recording secretary; and Mrs. Ada Willard, treasurer.

This new organization is being formed for a very worthwhile cause and warrants your membership and cooperation.

Trounces Lee Center

Paw Paw high school softball team unleashed an 18-hit attack against Lee Center on Tuesday afternoon and gave them a real 13 to 2 beating. Little Eddie Marks allowed only three hits, one of them a homer in the last inning. Paw Paw played well on defense, and the heavy hitters banged the ball all over the field. Junior Brewer got a home run for Paw Paw.

"DUTY" IS A RARE WORD IN VOCABULARY OF YOUTH

Old-Fashioned Idea Has Been Long Neglected

BY RUTH MILLETT

Duty is a word that Americans haven't bothered much with in years. Too many of today's young people were brought up without ever having been told they had any duty to their family, to their community, or to their country. They were taught that their real duty was to themselves; that their own happiness should come first in their decisions and in their way of life.

They weren't to consider that they might have a duty to their parents. If taking in an old and dependent father or mother complicated their lives, why then they shouldn't take them in.

If they found that they weren't blissfully happy with a husband or wife, a divorce was recommended—even if there were children to consider. The sophisticated answer to that complication was, "A home where the parents are unhappy and fighting and quarrelling all the time is worse for children than a home with just one parent."

Quarrelling vs. Children

It seemed old-fashioned to suppose that two grown-ups should be expected to vows, even though life wasn't all the moonlight and roses they supposed it would be when they married.

And it seemed woefully unsophisticated to say to young people with small children, "Since the fighting and quarrelling of parents is bad for children, give up your fighting and quarrelling and act like grown-ups—but don't give up your marriage."

When young people found it hard to get jobs, no one hinted that they might be looking for too good a job, or suggested that they try a job they considered beneath them—just for a starter. No. They were told their country had failed them by not providing them with good jobs the day they quit school and started job-hunting.

Young people have been so filled with the idea that their happiness and their security are their only concern that their hand-me-down philosophy doesn't have much place in it for duty. Now we are entering a period of our nation's life when its future may hang on the unselfish devotion to duty of its citizens.

"He doesn't LOOK good"

There is a story of a horse-trader who seemed reluctant to sell one of his horses to a prospective buyer because, as he said, "That horse doesn't look good."

The buyer, suspecting that the dealer was trying to outwit him, felt the horse over carefully, looked in its mouth, and decided that the horse looked very well. Whereupon he bought the animal and led it to his stable.

When he harnessed it and started down the road, he soon discovered that the dealer had been right. The horse DIDN'T "look good." It was blind.

Modern buyers need have no fear of such underhand practices. If you make it a habit to read carefully the pages of this newspaper, you will find nothing but sound values advertised at fair prices.

Only fine merchandise can bear the spotlight of publicity. Consistently advertised merchandise is safe merchandise to buy. Behind it stands the integrity of the manufacturer and the merchant.

Hear Further Details About Junior Programs

Mrs. Clarence W. Schaaf and Mrs. Irving C. Schur of Highland Park came to Dixon yesterday to tell students, teachers, and parents more details concerning Junior Programs, Inc., whose actors, and actresses, dancers and singers are scheduled to present three programs in Dixon this year.

The representatives, who give their time with no salary, spoke at all of the public schools in the city, as well as St. Mary's parochial school, during the day. Last evening, they met with representatives of Parent-Teacher associations, sponsors of the junior artist series.

Junior programs is a non-profit enterprise; the charge to any community for a series of shows covers only the salaries of the artists and their traveling expenses. As a result, half a million or more children in a hundred towns will be crowding into school auditoriums this winter to see real operas and real plays, flesh-and-blood singers and actors, at an extremely low admission charge.

The opening show of the season will be the ballet, "Robin Hood," which is scheduled for 4 p. m. Monday afternoon, Oct. 14, in the Dixon high school auditorium. Other productions will include the play, "Run Peddler Run," and an opera, "Jack and the Beanstalk."

WOMEN EMPLOYEES ARE ENTERTAINED

Women employees of The Telegraph were entertained last evening at the new home of the L. E. Shellers on Chicago Road, as guests of Miss Alice Sheller. The guests brought a table lamp for their hostess, who served refreshments at the close of the evening, assisted by her mother.

KENTUCKY VISITOR

Mrs. Dessa Hartwell, who is an employee at the government hospital in Lexington, Ky., has arrived in Dixon for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Alice Morris, and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morris.

DINNER GUESTS

Mrs. Harry Edwards entertained at dinner last evening at her home on Hennepin avenue.

Leaving For Grand Chapter

Members of the Order of Eastern Star will begin assembling in Chicago during the week end to attend sessions of the grand chapter, which will open Monday morning at the Medinah Mosque.

Mrs. Harold Emmert, worthy matron of Dorothy chapter, and Miss Rachel Kennedy, associate matron, will be leaving Saturday morning, and will be present tomorrow evening for the final official visit, to be held at South Shore chapter, home chapter of the worthy patron, Dr. Alfred N. Moore.

Mr. Emmert and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Santelmann expect to join Mrs. Emmert for Monday evening's dinner-dance at the Palmer House. Others expecting to attend the sessions from here include Mrs. Beulah Tennant, member of the eligibility committee; Mrs. Carrie Coe, member of the charity and seal committee, and Mrs. Orval Gearhart, Sr. Mrs. Emmert will be serving on the obituary committee.

Worthy matrons from a number of nearby Rock river valley chapters will be serving in the escort for the South Shore meeting, which is to be preceded by a 6:30 o'clock dinner. The chapter sessions will close Wednesday evening, with formal installation of the new grand officers.

Mrs. Emmert and Miss Kennedy will give accounts of the sessions when Dorothy chapter meets at Brinton Memorial Masonic temple on Friday evening, Oct. 4.

A DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Newcomer of Chicago are the parents of a daughter, Linda Ann, born this morning at Lying In hospital. The baby's mother, the former Miss Anne Davies, is a daughter of Mrs. Oliver Rogers, and Mr. Newcomer is a son of the F. X. Newcomers.

SUNSHINE CLUB

Mrs. Robert Levan arranged three tables of 500 yesterday for members of the Sunshine club. Mrs. Day Welty, Mrs. James Sherry and Mrs. Will Sauer shared score favors, and there were birthday gifts for Mrs. Avery Levan.

Mrs. Watson of near Eldena has invited the club members to her home for a scramble luncheon on Oct. 10.

Former Mendota Girl Is Wed at Wyoming Church

Miss Leola Baumgartner of Yellowstone National Park and Miami, Fla., formerly of Mendota, and George Wesley Reese, son of Mrs. Maude Reese of Los Angeles, Calif., were married Sunday, Sept. 22, in the Little Brown church at Jackson Hole, Wyo., south of the entrance of Yellowstone park. The bride is a daughter of John Baumgartner of Mendota.

Mrs. Reese, who is well known in Mendota where she was graduated from high school, has been employed as an accountant at the offices of Yellowstone park in the summer and at the Biltmore hotel at Miami during the winter season. She is a sister of Mrs. Henry Kohl of Mendota.

The couple will reside in Los Angeles, Calif., where Mr. Reese is in the oil distribution business.

Begin Pre-Nuptial Parties for John McLane's Fiancee

First of the pre-nuptial parties, which will precede the early November marriage of Miss Helen Joyce and John R. McLane, was arranged last evening by Miss Katherine Sullivan. A tea room dinner was followed by bridge games at the Sullivan home on Lincoln Way.

Unwrapping score favors at the close of the evening's bridge games were Mrs. William MacLeod, Mrs. Richard Joslyn, Mrs. Kenneth Mall, and Mrs. L. J. Welch. There was also a personal gift for the bride-elect from the hostess.

Miss Sullivan's party numbered 18, including her sister-in-law, Mrs. Tim Sullivan of Sterling.

Vests Will Be Hosts to Bridal Party, Tonight

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Vest of 215 Van Buren avenue will entertain at dinner at 7 o'clock this evening for the DePuy and Vest families, who will be united tomorrow by the marriage of the Vest's youngest son, Robert, and Miss Frances DePuy, daughter of the Robert B. DePuy of rural route 4.

Attending the bridal dinner this evening will be Miss DePuy and her fiancé, Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. DePuy, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Pitcher, Jr., of Streator, Dr. Eugene Vest, faculty member at Monmouth college, Mr. and Mrs. Vest and daughter Jane. Mrs. Pitcher is a sister of tomorrow's bride.

Leta Mae Bergonz and Mr. Abeling Wed in Chicago

Miss Leta Mae Bergonz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Bergonz of Nelson, became the bride of Lawrence J. Abeling, only son of the J. L. Abelings of Chicago, in a nuptial mass solemnized Saturday at St. Jerome's church in Chicago. The Rev. Father Pamier celebrated the mass in the presence of several hundred relatives and friends.

The altar was decorated with large baskets of Calla lilies, and the center aisle was carpeted in white.

Preceding the bride were Frank Bergonz of Nelson, the bride's brother, and Paul Fisher of Rochelle, her brother-in-law, who served as ushers. Her attendants included her sisters, Mrs. E. J. Chesrow of Chicago, and Mrs. P. M. Fisher of Rochelle, as bridesmaids; Miss Alethea Abeling of Chicago, sister of the bridegroom, her maid of honor, and little Catherine Fisher of Belle Plaines, Iowa, flower girl, who carried a basket of white rose asters.

The bride walked with her brother, James S. Bergonz, who gave her marriage. Her costume of white chiffon was made entrain, with long, fitted sleeves and round neck line. Her triple veil was fitted with a halo of white rosebuds, and her bouquet contained Calla lilies and white tea roses.

The maid of honor was met at the altar by Vincent Hines of Bedford Park, who served as best man. She was wearing a white rose chiffon, with puffed sleeves and floor-length skirt. Her blusher veil matched her flowered head piece.

The bride's sisters, as bridesmaids, were dressed alike in hyacinth blue chiffon, and each carried asters to match their gowns. The flower girl wore white rose chiffon.

A reception at the Edgewater Beach hotel followed the ceremony. Afterward, Mr. and Mrs. Abeling left on a motor trip to Lake Geneva, Wis. When they return in two weeks, they will be at home at 3438 West Franklin Boulevard, Chicago.

Mrs. Abeling was graduated from Dixon high school and from Scoville business college in Sterling. Both Mr. Abeling and his bride are employed by the Corn Products Refining company of Chicago.

TO CALIFORNIA

Dr. and Mrs. W. A. McNichols expect to leave tomorrow for San Francisco, Calif., for a week's visit with Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Zook, of Burbank, parents of Mrs. McNichols. Dr. Zook, who has been ill, is much improved.

Dixon Concert League Plans Auspicious Season

TITO SCHIPA, TENOR

EVA JESSYE CHOIR

Holders of those much-prized tickets for the Dixon Concert League artist series will be hastening to renew their subscriptions sometime between now and Oct. 21, which marks the deadline for signing up for the 1940-41 season.

Tito Schipa's appearance practically assures the league of a quick sellout. However, a group of workers under the direction of Mrs. I. B. Hofer have begun a drive to resubscribe old members and to take applications for new subscribers.

The Eva Jessye choir, Negro mixed voice ensemble which has won nationwide acclaim in all fields of music, will open the season on Wednesday evening, Nov. 6, at the Dixon high school auditorium, where all of the concerts will be heard. All who recall Gershwin's "Porgy and Bess," Gertrude Stein's unique opera "Four Saints in Three Acts," the motion picture, "Hallelujah," and the King Vidor version of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," are aware of the stirring singing of the ensemble and the brilliant conducting and scoring of Miss Eva Jessye, organizer and director of the choir bearing her name. And the thousands who are familiar with their Columbia and Victor recordings in support of such stars as Lawrence Tibbett and Helen Jepson are more than merely acquainted with their collective musicianship and individual artistry.

Some hundred-odd opera roles are included in the repertoire of Tito Schipa, opera and concert tenor, who comes here for a recital later in the season. Audiences in his native land, in Spain, South America, in every opera house of Europe, have acclaimed him. He made a brilliant debut at the Chicago opera, early in his American career, he made a conquest of New York, and he has conquered every other American city in which he has appeared.

The third program will be a joint recital by lovely Virginia Haskins, young coloratura soprano, who is leading the galaxy of new stars on the opera horizon; and Thaddeus Kozuch, brilliant young pianist, who was born in Chicago of Polish parentage in 1913.

Although but 21 years old, Miss Haskins, who was born in Centralia, Ill., has already won the enthusiastic acclaim of Chicago's critical press and public. She made her American debut with the Chicago Civic Opera company as Filina in "Mignon." In the spring of 1939, Kozuch won a contest sponsored by the Adult Education Council to select the most outstanding young pianist, amateur or professional, in the Chicago area.

Legion Auxiliary Has Installation of New Officers

Bouquets of fall flowers decorated the G. A. R. Hall Wednesday evening for formal installation of American Legion Auxiliary officers. Mrs. Edith Berga of Amboy, 13th district director, served as installing officer, assisted by Mrs. Marie Hetler, as installing sergeant-at-arms.

Mrs. Zildan Kennaugh, the retiring president, opened the meeting. Following the advance of the color bearers, the pledge was repeated, and the national anthem was sung in unison.

Those installed were: President, Mrs. Erma Ommen; senior vice president, Mrs. Addie Snyder; junior vice president, Mrs. Edna Arnold; historian, Mrs. Lila Wagner; treasurer, Mrs. Emma Phalen; chaplain, Mrs. Louise Phalen; sergeant-at-arms, Mrs. Sophie Clark; assistant sergeant-at-arms, Mrs. Bessie Moore; secretary, Mrs. Dorothy Christian; musician, Mrs. Ora Lenox; assistant musician, Mrs. Ethel Fitzsimmons; color bearers, Mrs. Mae Chiverton, Mrs. Margaret Rosbrook, Miss Jean Phalen, and Miss Jane Phalen.

A past president's jewel was presented to Mrs. Kennaugh by the district director, Mrs. Ommen, the newly-installed president, presented each of the installing officers with gifts, and in behalf of the G. A. R. ladies, Mrs. Marie Hetler gave a gift to Mrs. Ommen. Each retiring officer also received a gift from Mrs. Kennaugh.

Committee chairmen named by the new president included: Americanism, Mrs. Viola Strub; auxiliary loan fund, Mrs. Mazie Kelly; child welfare, Mrs. Anna Raffenberg; community service, Mrs. Clara Traynor; education of orphans of veterans, Mrs. Winifred Edous; Gold Star, Mrs. Marie Hetler; historian, Mrs. Lila Wagner; Junior activities, Mrs. Emma Phalen; legislative, Mrs. Dorothy Teschendorff; membership, Mrs. Addie Snyder; music, Mrs. Ora Lenox; national defense, Mrs. Mabel O'Malley; national news, Mrs. Minnie Miller; past president party, Mrs. Zildan Kennaugh; poppy Mrs. Katherine Tusha; radio, Mrs. Ora Lenox; publicity, Mrs. Dorothy Christian; rehabilitation, Mrs. Edna Arnold; veterans' employment, Mrs. Bessie

Moore; sunshine, Mrs. Louis Withers; ways and means, Mrs. Marie Hetler.

Mrs. Berga made a short talk, stressing importance of membership, Americanism, and national defense. She announced a district school of instruction for Wednesday, Oct. 16, in Dixon.

Past presidents are to meet Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Teschendorff at 7:30 o'clock. The October rag sewing meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Minnie Miller. Plans were also discussed for a rummage sale.

Refreshments were served by three past presidents, Mrs. Dorothy Teschendorff, Mrs. Emma Phalen, and Mrs. Clara Traynor. The next regular meeting is scheduled for 7:30 p. m. Oct. 9 in G. A. R. hall.

Afternoon Clubs Compliment Miss Catheryn Buchner

Two afternoon bridge clubs combined their party-giving efforts last evening for a no-hostess bridge dinner, complimenting Miss Catheryn Buchner. Before she becomes the bride of Allen Boyd on Oct. 12, Miss Buchner is being honored at a series of parties which has been occupying her friends for several weeks.

A mixed bouquet of autumn flowers was a bright note on the table for a tea room dinner. Tiny brides, bells, and wedding rings decorated the pastel placecards.

Following the dinner, contract hands were dealt at the home of Mrs. Arthur Hill on Peoria avenue. Mrs. Henry Hey, Miss Buchner, and Mrs. James Palmer were fortunate in the card games. An electric toaster was the group's bridal gift for the honoree.

BRIDGE HOSTESS

Mrs. Ray Miller was hostess at luncheon for her bridge foursome on Wednesday.

GEORGE WASHINGTON SAID:

"Excessive partiality to one foreign nation and excessive dislike of another cause those whom they actuate to see danger only on one side, and serve to well and even second the arts of influence on the other. Real patriots who may resent the intrusions of the favorite are liable to become suspected and odious while its tools and dupes usurp the applause and confidence of the people to surrender their interests." From the Farewell Address.

Respecting America's "Big Stick"

To the world at large, America's insistence that it be left to pursue its own democratic way of life
is no longer empty chatter, broadcast only to bring courage to the faltering hearts of United States citizens.

Appropriation of 15 billion dollars for defense
and conscription of our manpower is at last beginning to convince some people that we mean business when we declare that the United States will not succumb to the kind of political policy that has already been imposed on weaker nations, less prepared than the United States intends to be. The conscription army has not yet been mustered. The military contracts authorized by Congress have scarcely been let. But other nations are already aware of the implications.

We shall have more than a wooden gun and a prayer in our hearts when the test comes.

Indicative of the high regard the outer world
places on American military precautions is the warning expressed in Tokio recently by the authoritative newspaper Asahi. The United States,
this organ proclaims, has finally passed the stage
of paper plans and has embarked on a program of working reality.

Part of the recent activity on the American continent, the paper concedes, must be laid to the growing tension in the Pacific.

"We must be concerned because the words and actions of the American government and the American intelligentsia are growing more and more anti-Japanese and they are made against the background
of huge armaments," the journal comments.

"It would be premature to conclude that American intervention in Pacific questions will be immediate. The proviso that America's conscription
army is not to be sent outside the American continent is not merely meant for home consumption.

YESTERDAY: Joe calms Sue
Mary's fears about a strike at Smithson, urges her to marry him,
to break with the crowd. Sue Mary asks for a little time, promises to set the wedding date in a week. She wonders what she can do in a week.

RIOTS AT SMITHSON

CHAPTER XVII

"SHE did have it. I tell you I saw her looking it over. Saw her with my own eyes."

Kitty's whisper was furious and her green eyes shot fire as she confronted Babs. "Don't stand
there and try to tell me to be quiet. That one—she's wrong.
She's up to something."

Sue Mary stood quietly behind
the file and listened to the whispered argument. It seemed to her that all she was doing lately was listening to other people's conversations. First at the apartment, whenever Vera and Natalie were together; then at the hall, when Nick issued confidential orders to some of the workers; and here at the office, whenever she believed
she could benefit by learning
something more about Vera's
aims.

"Well, so what?" Babs said mildly. "Just because Miss Grant was hunting for another paper
and Vera happened to have it on her desk doesn't create an international incident. You're one of those hysterical people who sees
a spy under every wastebasket
and behind every door."

Kitty turned away, sulky. On her desk was the morning paper
and she turned the pages over
to the society sheet's gossip column. Sue Mary knew what she was reading. She herself had seen it while coming down on the bus
that morning, and she had marked
it and given it to Vera.

It was one of those inconsequential bits of froth used as filler
when society news was slack.
"Who," it questioned, "was the stunning madonna type taking Ross Clark Junior's mind off the airport worries last night at the Golden Cal?"

Vera had shrugged her shoulders and smiled when she read it.
"Well, one sees all phases of life
that way," she said. "Beer and salami in the hall one night;

champagne and a would-be politician the next."

"Do you think he has political ambitions?" Sue Mary asked, surprised.

"Yes. He's conceited enough to picture himself in the limelight.
He was born in society, so that offers no goal. He's stupid enough to believe a political career would add to his charm. All he needs is money, and from what he says
he needs plenty. He must be in debt right up to his ears. He certainly hasn't the sense his father has."

"You sound as though you knew him pretty well, Vera." Sue Mary watched the other girl's face intently.

"I've had a few dates with him
and when you're with a guy who drinks as much as he does, you can learn a lot—if you're smart."

SUE MARY turned to traditional feminine outlet for her worries that noon hour. Working with the Youth Progress group had changed her. None of the girls
there thought much about clothes.
Vera was the exception, at least
as far as dressing for the office,
but on the whole, the girls considered clothes unimportant. One concentrated on ideals.

And now Sue Mary decided upon an abrupt about-face. She looked at her last pay check and decided to go shopping.

A little smile tugged at her lips.
A girl who planned to get married had a right to think about a trousseau. Perhaps it wasn't exactly practical to buy gossamer-
thin chiffon hose, or fragile lace-
trimmed lingerie, but she did,
squandering her money with a recklessness that lifted her spirits
higher than they had been in days.

She tried on dresses—early fall
frocks—and marched out with two that were much too expensive for her budget.

Joe had suggested she buy for her home. But if he knew anything of feminine psychology, he would know just how much buying these clothes meant now. A new lipstick, gay nail polish, a fragrant, cool toilet water, and a silly, useless bracelet that jingled
on her wrist at the slightest provocation. She felt she could handle any situation.

And then she saw the paper.
She was on her way back to the office with her arms filled with bundles when the noon edition's front page stared up at her from a pile on the street corner.

But the distance between the possession of such enormous strength and its actual use is only a hair's breadth."

Japan knows, as every other nation and every American citizen knows, that America's military machine will not be brought into use against any foreign power unless there is adequate reason for doing so. Preparedness in the United States means exactly that. The American people have a genuine horror for aggression. They will never permit their armed forces to engage in that kind of war if they can help it.

It is enough that Americans desire to live an honest, free and peaceful life should be sufficiently supported by arms and power to guarantee that kind of existence.

In a world where guns and cannon have suddenly become the supreme test, the United States
has shown it is ready to compete.

A Bright Side of the War News

There has been so much suffering and killing in the first year of the European war that it's something of a surprise to find one lone indication of a trend in the direction of human progress.

Six diseases which in the past have claimed more lives than bullets and bombs have so far been checked. The germs of influenza, smallpox, typhoid, dysentery, typhus and cerebro-spinal meningitis
have all appeared, but they've been conquered.

Better housing, better food, new drugs and
new treatments, and—most important of all—watchful medical examiners have combined to prevent a recurrence of the great epidemics of former wars.

Science, which has repeatedly increased the effectiveness of tools of destruction, also has done much to alleviate the horrors of war.

Return to the Fifteenth Century

Every once in a while, science catches up with itself, shrugs its shoulders and decides that maybe there's something to the simple way of life.

For years aeronautical engineers have been designing complicated instruments to help a pilot get safely to the place he's going. One thing had them stumped: there didn't seem to be any safe way of getting a transcontinental pilot safely through a storm. Usually, pilots just had to land and wait until things cleared up.

This week, airline pilots are going back to a system of reckoning that worked pretty well for the Portuguese navigators of the fifteenth century.
They'll simply climb above the storm clouds and "shoot" the stars or the sun with a sextant. It won't matter if they get off their radio beam because they'll still know where they're going.

Wine from Milk

Now the chemurgists are making wine from milk. It is produced from whey, much of which is now wasted. Chemists have been trying for a long time to devise new products to be made from whey. Clothing is already achieved, and now, more or less by accident, they have stumbled on the fact that a sort of wine may also be made from it.

This jumbles everything all up, for milk is even more directly a farm product than the grapes or grain that go into alcoholic drinks at present. With steering wheels made out of beans, stockings made out of coal, sweaters from milk, magnesium metal from sea water, and now wine from whey, nobody is going to know the source of what he consumes unless he keeps close by him a textbook on higher chemistry.

of the crush of the hurrying noon-
hour crowd, to read the story.

Both labor and plant officials agreed that the trouble came as a shock to them. Negotiations were under way and satisfactory
progress had been made so far.
No one could put the blame for the riot on any particular group of men. Statements that pay was to be cut were absolutely false.
Yet trouble there had been, and two workers and one plant policeman had needed medical attention.

Leaflets had been found at the gate, urging the men to demand
their rights; warning them that they were being "sold down the river" by labor representatives
who had gone over to the management. The company officials announced they were putting extra guards around the plant to prevent sabotage, and that work
would go on as usual so that the materials they manufactured
would be delivered on time to the plane factory.

SUE MARY called Joe that evening. Each minute had dragged back at the office. She kept watching the clock for the time when he would be out of work and she could talk to him. The hands dragged maddeningly and Babs
had finally smiled and winked.
"Must have an important date,"
she grinned.

Sue Mary tried to make her frozen lips smile back. She couldn't even feel until she knew
from Joe that he was all right.
She stopped at a drug store on her way home when she thought
he might be at his room.

"Of course, I'm all right," he said.
She was incoherent in her
anxiety. "But those headlines.
That story about some men hurt,"
she kept repeating.

"It's nothing to get excited about," Joe told her. "I'm glad you worried, though. You do love me, don't you?"

"You know that. And you know
I'll worry about you—always. Joe.
Will there be any more trouble,
dear? You will be careful, won't you? Anything can happen when a riot starts."

"You're borrowing trouble again, sweetheart." The laughter left his voice then. "I thought you were borrowing it the last time we were together. Remember? You asked me then if there was a possibility of labor trouble
at the factory."

"Maybe you had second-sight, Sue Mary. Or would you say a —pipeline? A pipeline through the Youth Progress crowd?"

NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS

By PAUL MALLON
(Distributed by King Features

Washington, Sept. 26 — The greatest government spending
program ever dreamed in the mind
of man—billions bulking two and perhaps three times as large as the New Deal has spent in its palmiest years—is lurking in the minds of Mr. Roosevelt's economists.

I would not say its launching will be the inevitable result of Mr. Roosevelt's election for a third term. He has in the past turned down the spending school on occasions, notably upon Treasury
Secretary Morgenthau's advice in 1938. But I think it is a reasonable forecast of the result of a Democratic victory.

The economists talk of little else.
First hint that they had a newly developed working theory, evolved
from the old Keynesian spending leaders last week. The possibilities of a $20,000,000,000 annual budget, twice as large as any in New Deal history was there mentioned. Since then their inner conversations have expanded the idea.
It has not been reduced to writing
and not all adherents agree on all phases, but the substance of their collective opinions may be fairly
outlined as follows:

The defense program calls for $16,000,000,000 to be expended during the next few years, some of it extended over a period of five years in construction of naval vessels. Behind these direct defense requirements, Mr. Roosevelt's seers foresee the necessity of even vast-er requirements, in public works,
for superhighways, airfields, hospitals, housing facilities. Within two or three years they calculate
the prospect that four or five million men may be needed under arms in the field (four times as many as are to be drafted for training under existing program.)
Maintenance and equipment of these men together with public works expansion can conceivably
require a military outlay of $20-000,000,000 which would bring the total annual budget to nearly $30-000,000,000 within that same brief period.

The calculator figure such an outlay would force national income up from its present level of $75,000,000,000 estimated 1940) to around $90,000,000,000. This reservoir could be siphoned by readjustment of taxes—and I mean readjustment. Taxes of 10 per cent on $5,000 incomes and 25 per cent
on $25,000 incomes, roughly more than double existing rates are being mentioned. Excise taxes on cigarettes, liquor, cosmetics, etc.,
would be dropped in favor of the much stiffer income rates on the middle classes. But even doubling and trebling all taxes would not be sufficient revenue for the kind of money they want to spend, and in its initial stages the spending
would be almost entirely from borrowing, which would likewise double and treble the existing Federal debt within a few years.

At root the scheme is to add to the necessities of the defense
program for a stupendous experiment for prosperity spending.

The third term issue has apparently been lost in the campaign.
Two-thirds of the people in the United States believe the tradition
is either silly or should not apply
in times of crisis, according to the Fortune poll of September 25. The Republicans obviously have not considered this a strong issue and have not stressed it. Thus the two-term tradition is forecast to die
virtually unheeded. A new tradition is now being made. It will mean that every president hereafter will seek a third term, perhaps a fourth, fifth, etc., just as naturally as they have heretofore sought a second. Two-thirds of the people seem to ask, "What of it,
if he is a good president and the people want him?" That argument will not be impressive to those who have seen the recent cultivation of the roots of democracy on the ground here. Powers ten times as great as any executive ever previously wielded in this country have been lodged in the White House by recent laws: Powers
over all classes of people, powers to drive them out of business their savings through alteration of the value of money, powers over their wages and hours and old age benefits, powers over their livelihoods
through benefits, patronage and relief, powers to make profitable
the friendly industries, construction companies, etc., and thus destroy their competitors, powers
over their private lives through the vast espionage systems of the income tax bureau and the FBI—but above all the powers over credit,
money, and the economic lifeblood

WENDELL WILLKIE Says:

"When the government spends
our money it should open up new economic opportunity for our private enterprises. In the last seven years we have seen this country
forced more and more deeply into debt, while 10,000,000 remained without jobs and the only element
that grew rich was government itself."

"Increasing our debts without increasing our opportunities will end
us in bankruptcy."

of the nation. No citizen is immune from the grasp or threat of government today.

An inscrupulous politician—say
one no more unscrupulous in regard to conscientious restraints than the late Huey Long—could perpetuate himself in office indefinitely by the mere threat of aggressive use of these powers. He could drive newspapers out of business by his political enforcement of the wage and hour laws
and other pinching. He could prevent radio from talking about him
by using the power to deny licenses through his appointees on the Federal communications commission. He could destroy congressmen who oppose him by the same artifices he uses on business
opposition, doubly strengthened
as far as politicians are concerned because they cannot face the scourge of devastating propaganda, tax scandals and organized slur campaigns. He could subdue any opposition not in the lunatic
class by pressure never discernible
to the public. He could do it all in a pleasant and indirect way
that further concealed its purpose.

These things are obviously not evident to the two-thirds of the people who voted in the Fortune
poll, but they explain tersely why
many fair-minded authorities suspect democracy itself can fall by this single popular attitude toward a "silly and outworn tradition." Don't forget they still hold elections in Germany and Russia.

Rock Falls-Dixon Underclassmen Clash at 6:30 P.M.

FANFARE

By DON DANIELSON

SAYS YOU

Our football predictions last week had a percentage which looked like our bowling average and the hope bucket is revealed as a refuse can which should be buried for sanitation. But we will persist in bowling and you might as well stick out a whole neck as a half. For tonight's contests we take a deep breath and say: Sterling over Mendota. This is going to be one of the best games of the season if the early records mean anything on paper. Both have good teams and it's only because one must be chosen that we say Sterling—by a hair. Dixon over Rock Falls. It looks like Dixon's year. We hope it is. Amboy over Polo. Both were doormat teams of the Rock River conference this season and Amboy looked better against Freeport than Polo against Stockton, or at least so the scouts say. Rockford East over Belvidere. Belvidere is getting doggone sick and tired of this losing business and may fool us—and Rockford East. But we'll stand on Rockford's performance last week (that of Vella and Alonzo). DeKalb over Downers Grove. DeKalb is defending champion of the North Central conference. Or hadn't you heard? Mt. Morris over Morrison. After Sterling's blow in Morrison's breadbasket last week—Mt. Morris. Oregon over Rochelle. We don't know why we say this, unless it is because O. comes before R. in the alphabet. That's just about how uncertain it is. Princeton over Kewanee. The Tigers are getting the claws sharpened for their brawl in the North Central conference and after lacing DePue like a 1929 football, we think it could be.

LOW GROSS SCORE

Dr. F. L. Merkle of Polo won low gross honors in class A of the golf tournament of dentists of northern Illinois yesterday at Rockford. The tournament was part of a program arranged for the dentists who were assembled for general clinics. Merkle turned in a card of 81 to capture the prize.

SOFTBALL MANAGERS TO MEET

A meeting of all softball managers, sponsors and officers of the Dixon Athletic association will meet Monday night at 7 o'clock at The Telegraph offices to discuss important post-season business.

WISCONSIN, WIN OR LOSE, WISCONSIN

From the Badger state where Coach Harry Stuhldreher's small Wisconsin team is working out comes news of two Dixon boys. After a stuttering start, the first strong Wisconsin eleven began to hit on all cylinders and rolled up four touchdowns in the first scrimmage of the week on Wednesday. Don Miller of Dixon scored the fourth marker on a long jaunt. Of the 114 freshmen candidates who reported to Russ Rippe, head coach, Leland Shoaf was one of them. Physical drills aimed to get them in condition as quickly as possible will be stressed for the first few days.

WORCESTER LEADS MAJOR LEAGUE

Ed Worley replaced Ray Wilbur as high bowler in the standings of the Major League last week and the circuit gets going again tonight with a close race for second honors among the individual kегlers. Dixon Cafe still tops the league with an .889 percentage. State Highway is second and two teams are tied for third. Complete standings are as follows:

ON FOOTBALL ROSTER

Laverne McMillon of Dixon, six-foot, 165-pound end, is listed on the roster of the football team at Northern Illinois State Teachers college at DeKalb. Others who are practicing with the Huskies are: Bob Duffield of Princeton, a tackle; Gene Krahenbuhl of Rochelle, a letterman fullback; O. Krahenbuhl of Rochelle, another letterman fullback; Ralph Schimanski of Rochelle, a guard; and George Linnemeier of Rochelle, a guard.

CONFERENCE FOOTBALL

Ashton's high school football team defeated Forreston, 2 to 1, in a Route 72 conference game yesterday. It was the Forreston team's first loss and put Ashton in a tie for second place with Stillman Valley and Leaf River. Leaf River handed Franklin Grove its third setback with a 13 to 5 decision.

ARCHERY SHOOT

Members of the Dixon Bowmen's club will hold another archery shoot at the Crawford range Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, according to an announcement today by President Kenneth Abbott.

Yanks' Whirlwind Finish Looms Like Sword Over Tigers, Indians

By JUDSON BAILEY

Associated Press Sports Writer

Connie Mack, a well-known

baseball manager and little-known

prophet when he predicted last spring the four-time World Champion Yankees would crumble this year, has his last chance to make good on that prediction today.

With an almost imaginary

chance to retain the American League flag, the New Yorkers

have won their last eight games in a whirlwind finish that even now

is looming like a sword of Dam-

ocles over the heads of the

Cleveland Indians and the Detroit Tigers.

Detroit can eliminate Cleveland

with one victory any time it can get it—today, tomorrow or Sunday. But unless the Yankees get whipped, the Tigers will have to win twice at Cleveland to evade

a tie with the champions.

That's why old Connie's forecast

is right back in his lap today, for his Philadelphia Athletics will be meeting the Yankees for the last time this season, and the A's can make certain that New York

doesn't get any farther by winning

this one game.

Prepares For Crisis

Connie did his best in preparing for the crisis. He saved Johnny

Babich for the pitching job. Babich, a prize pulled out of last year's draft, has beaten New York

in four of five starts this season.

But it takes a lot to stop the Yankee juggernaut these days, and the A's couldn't do it yesterday in spite of two good pitching performances. The Yankees swept a doubleheader, 5-4 and 2-0, to put the standings in this share for the payoff.

TIME AND PLACE

Freshman-sophomore game at 6:30 at

Rock Falls high school athletic field. Varsity game at 8 o'clock.

COACHES: Marvin Winger

(Dixon underclassmen); C. B.

Lindell (Dixon varsity); George

Quire (Rock Falls).

Officials: E. H. Drew, referee;

Roy Johnson, umpires; A. Ritz-man, head linesman. All of De-

Kalb.

A dress rehearsal for tonight's

"meller-drayna" at Rock Falls

was held here last night under the floodlights where the Dixon Dukes

went through their lines in final

preparations for the big show.

The curtain will go up on tonight's performance with the

freshman-sophomore prologue in which Coach Marvin Winger's Dixon underclassmen will be seeking

their second straight victory.

Coach C. B. Lindell's varsity will share the major roles with Coach

George Quire's boys in the climax of the evening in which one or the other is likely to become the loser.

Tonight's underclassman skrimish will begin at 6:30. Coach Marvin Winger has named his probable

starting lineup as follows: Carl

Schmuck, le; Williams Evans, lt;

Sostant Pierre, lg; Floyd Thompson, c; Bob Hess, rg; Donald Edwards, rt; Bob Miller, re; John

Lottus, qb; Raymond Joynt, lb;

Bill Leineke, rh and Robert Qui-hot, fb.

Others of the underclassmen who will make the trip and may see

action in the game include: William Deyon, Robert Cramer, Wayne

Pierce, Kenneth Cramer, William

Haeffler, John Van Nuys, Eustace

Shaw, Donald Hamill, Walter

Knack, Bryce Hubbard and Charles

Clinker.

The varsity Dukes go into tonight's game with an undefeated

record through two games after having tripped Mt. Morris 14 to 0

and battled through a scoreless

deadlock with Rockford East last week. The Rockets have bowed twice, once to Sterling (18 to 0)

and to Pekin (13 to 0).

Bruised But Determined

It is reported from Rock Falls

that Coach Quire will have a bruised but determined team for tonight's game. Higgins, Deets and Warner were out of practice this week due to injuries in the Pekin

game, but are expected to be in time for tonight. Coach Lindell, too, has his "injury worries" with

Kenneth Potts out for at least a month and Robert Sandborn and Padilla just recovering from recent illnesses. However, the Dukes will be ready for tonight's foe.

Last season the Dukes battled through a one-touchdown tie with the Rockets who later turned out to be champions of their Rock

River Conference. This year has nine returning lettermen. They are

Co-Captain Higgins, 155 pounds;

Burns, 170; Feldthouse, 195; Deets,

198; George, 170; Genz, 167; Edeus,

165; Spencer, 140 and Howe, 175.

These boys, contrasted with Dixon's line, seem to have a weight

advantage which may stand them

in good form for tonight's encounter. But the Dukes last week

demonstrated against a heavier

Rockford team that weight is not everything.

Viewed from any angle, tonight's game should be a quite speaking

—"a killer-diller". And a large crowd of Dixon fans are expected to storm the Whiteside county

city.

Mid-West Teams Invade West for Saturday Games

By ARNOLD DERLITZKI

Chicago, Sept. 27—(AP)—A preview of what could be expected should the Big Ten and Pacific

Coast conferences ever get together for a Rose Bowl football

finish comes up Saturday.

The program, in its own way,

outdoes the Rose Bowl in that it offers a form of double feature—

Washington vs. Minnesota at Minneapolis and Michigan vs. California at Berkeley.

West Coast fans will get an

eyeful of terrible Tom Harmon

and his Big Ten contenders; Midwestern enthusiasts a look at one of the coast's topnotch threats

this season—and no one will use

up transcontinental mileage except the rival teams.

The experts are giving the Wolverines the nod over California,

but are more reticent about Minnesota even though the Gophers

have beaten Washington in two previous meetings. It may be because Coach Jimmy Phelan of the Huskies has eight of the regulars who held Southern California

to a 9-7 triumph last year.

Two other Big Ten members—

Ohio State and Purdue—also open

the 1940 campaign Saturday, the Buckeyes against Pittsburgh at

Columbus and the Boilermakers

against Butler at LaFayette.

Coach Francis Schmidt decided

yesterday that his 1940 Ohio

State club was polished suffi-

FFA LEADERSHIP SCHOOL

Melvin Brucker and Lawrence Hartzell with their adviser, La Verne Baker, attended a two-day leadership training school September 20 and 21, which was held at Springfield.

Two hundred schools sent 450 boys to attend this school of training. It is very valuable to those who attend and they in turn bring back information to improve their own local chapter. These meetings were held in the Junior building at the State Fair Grounds at Springfield.

Friday was spent in lectures and discussions of FFA programs parliamentary procedure and duties of officers of the club. The boys went by bus and visited Lincoln's home, state house, and Lincoln's tomb in the afternoon. Saturday morning the boys listened to more discussions and took a test over parliamentary procedure.

GIRL SCOUT MEETING

The Girls Scouts held their first meeting of the year Tuesday evening in the Kersten gymnasium. A scramble supper was enjoyed by the group and their leaders Miss Cann and Miss Hepler. After supper a business meeting was held, presided over by the president, Marion Stillwell. The evening was spent in playing games. Those present besides the leaders were: Jackie Canode, Marion Stillwell, Betty Ann McDevitt, Marion Miller, Dorothy Karper, Arlene Ives, Rosemary Peterman, Shirley Fordham, Janice Watson, Janette Miller.

RETURNED FROM VISIT

Mrs. Charles Albright of Dixon, a former resident of this community returned home Tuesday from Graton, New York where she had been making an extended visit with her sister.

WILL MEET THURSDAY

The Woman's Society of Christian Service will meet Thursday, Oct. 3rd at the Methodist church. At this meeting there will be installation of officers and the drawing of names for new circles. And any other business that is necessary. It is expected that more of the ladies will join Thursday and be counted as charter members. The hostesses are Mrs. Pansy Biesecker, Mrs. Ruth Butler, Mrs. Gladys McDevitt, Mrs. Eva Karper, Miss Bertha Zoeller and Miss Clara Lahman.

HOMEMAKING NOTES

The girls are enjoying some beautiful new equipment including two cabinet sinks, a new refrigerator dining room table, and cupboards as well as an entire redecoration of the room. The book-cases have been enlarged also and a new magazine rack installed.

In order that all of the girls might become better acquainted with the room each class has begun a foods project. The homemaking I class is studying breakfasts including planning, preparing, and serving in family units. The Homemaking II class has just finished a canning project and is beginning a study of luncheons and suppers.

The Homemaking III class is spending some time on menus and foods for various types of entertainment including teas, buffet meals, and refreshments for various occasions. In connection with the food, etiquette of each occasion is being studied.

The Home Economics Club is looking forward to a profitable year with the following officers: President—Phyllis Pyse. Vice-president—Bernice Burhenn. Secretary-treasurer—Jackie Canode. Program chairman—Marion Matern.

On Oct. 5 the clubs of the Northern District are having a rally at Morrison high school. We hope to have a large delegation present from Franklin Grove high school.

O. E. S. INITIATION

Garnet Chapter O. E. S. held initiation Monday for and received Mrs. Blanche Cryor and Mrs. Charles Schnucker into their membership. The hall was most beautifully decorated with the lovely fall flowers. After the initiation a social time followed during which lovely refreshments were enjoyed.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Sarah Losey, Mrs. Mildred Smith, Mrs. Raymer and Mr. Chapman of Ashton.

FARMS SOLD

The sale of the farms belonging to the Frank Kersten estate was held Thursday and Friday of last week and created a great deal of interest. The farm in Bradford township of 239 acres where Benjamin Richwine lives was sold to Fred L. Swanland of Dixon, the price being $126.25. The 240 acres north of town tenanted by C. A. Blocher and Guy Farver were sold to Curvie M. Glosser of Ashton, the price being $68.00 per acre.

ATTENDED DISTRICT MEET

Misses Adella Helmershausen and Miss Clara Lahman of this place in company with Mrs. Ralph M. Dreger of Ashton, motored to DeKalb Tuesday where they attended the district meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church.

SUNDAY GUESTS

Rev. and Mrs. Ralph M. Dreger had as their guests Sunday Mrs. and Mrs. E. H. Dreger and granddaughter, Nancy Ann Heckman of Oak Park, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis of Hustisford, Wis.

ENTERTAINED SUNDAY

Sunday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Larson were: Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Mayberry of Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Mrs. R. M. Bullard of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Smith, Everett Smith and Fred Avery of Mt. Morris.

PERSONAL ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Myers and son, Jimmy, of Aurora were Sunday guests in the home of her mother, Mrs. Drucie Banker.

Mrs. Will Trowbridge returned home Sunday evening from Clintonville, Wis.; after a three weeks visit with friends.

Rev. and Mrs. Louis Grafton had as their guests Tuesday Rev. and Mrs. A. B. Darling of the Willow Creek Presbyterian church.

Mr. and Mrs. William Klingebell and family of Ashton were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hewitt.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker Barton and family have moved here from Dixon and are living in the John Hewitt place vacated by the Trowbridge family.

Mrs. Elizabeth Durkes and son, Luther, left Tuesday for Gladbrook, Iowa, where Mrs. Durkes will visit her daughter, Mrs. Will Myers while Luther attends to his land interests in Northern Iowa.

Mrs. Clarence Yocum and daughters Misses Helen, Lucille, and Eleanor were dinner guests Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Walters at Compton.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Chamberlain of Dixon are the parents of a new baby son. The mother will be remembered as Leda Yocum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Yocum, former residents of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. William Herbst and family visited the Mississippi Palisades at Savanna Sunday.

DIAMOND NOTES

After a close and well played game at Forreton Thursday the score showed that Forreton had won by a score of 6-4. The game was close throughout and the Wildcats had several opportunities to even the score and go ahead, but lacked consistent batting punch. Franklin Grove had 6 hits, 4 runs and 4 errors, while Forreton accumulated 9 hits for 6 runs with four errors.

At present the league standings are:

Team	W.	L.	Pct.
Forreton	2	0	1.000
Stillman Valley	2	1	.666
Leaf River	1	2	.333
Ashton	1	2	.333
Franklin Grove	0	2	.000

Franklin Grove was to have played at Stillman Valley on Tuesday but due to rain the game was postponed to Wednesday.

Thursday at three p. m. the Leaf River team is to play on the local diamond. The Wildcats have been steadily improving and with a little added practice and confidence should have plenty of opposition for the remaining four teams yet to play in the league.

The games yet to play are: Wednesday, Sept. 25—At Stillman Valley.

Thursday, Sept. 26—Leaf River at Franklin.

Thursday, Oct. 3—Franklin at Ashton.

Tuesday, Oct. 8—Forreton at Franklin.

MASTER IN CHANCERY

Attorney Martin V. Peterman, of Oregon, was appointed as Master in Chancery of the Ogle County by Circuit Judges Leonard A. Zick, of Oregon and Harry E. Wheat of Freeport.

Attorney Peterman formerly served as state's attorney of Ogle county for two terms. His appointment as Master in Chancery is for two years. He succeeds Fred Gardner of Rochelle. Attorney Peterman was born and grew to young manhood in this town. Attended and graduated from the local high school. And to his friends of his boyhood days he is still known as "Junior" all of whom are extending congratulations.

TUNIS GROUP

The Tunis group of the Presbyterian church to the number of eighteen held their regular meeting Wednesday evening in the church parlors. Miss Jeannette Myers had charge of the Devotions her subject was "Prayer." After the devotions games were played. At the close of which the hostesses Miss Marion Pyle and Wesley Herwig, Jr., served lovely refreshments. A surprise to all was a beautiful birthday cake which Mrs. Charles Pyle had made. All decorated with pink rosebuds and candles was presented to Rev. Mr. Grafton who was celebrating his birthday anniversary.

HERE TUESDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Blaine and daughter, Miss Shirley, and Judy Soljerstrom of Highland Park were guests Tuesday in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Miller and Mrs. Sadie Blaine.

BRETHREN CHURCH NOTES

The Brethren Sunday school will begin at 9:30 a. m. This is the last Sunday for the year, since our church year begins on Oct. 1. So help us to make this Sunday one of the best. The lesson is "Where Your Treasure Ought to Be."

BIRTHDAY DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Dysart, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wendell and daughter of this community and Charles Albright of Dixon were Sunday dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Dysart. The dinner was in honor of Mrs. Dysart who was celebrating her birthday anniversary. Mrs. Dysart has always lived in this community and her friends are wishing for her many more happy birthdays.

Sunday will be Promotion Day and installation for the new officers, both for the church and the Sunday school. The morning subject will be, "According to Jesus What brings us under the smile of God and keeps us there." The evening service will be a unified service. The intermediates will give several numbers and have charge of devotions. A vocal duet by Audra and Jeannette Miller and a reading by Darlene Fair. The subject for the evening is, "The Good Shepherd." Ladies Aid will meet Wednesday. Our all-church social will be held on Wednesday evening at 7:30 and all members of church and Sunday school are urged to be present. The choir will rehearse on Thursday evening at 7:45.

METHODIST CHURCH

Sunday, Sept. 29, is the last Sunday in the conference year. All members of the church are urged to be present at the Unified Service, 9:30-11:00 a. m. Janet Howard will read the Scripture from Ephesians, "The Perfect Man" is the subject of the sermon. Class study is to be "The Use and Abuse of Wealth."

Choir practice is set for fifteen minutes following the service, so others who have not been singing in the choir will be enabled to do so.

Epworth Leaguers will meet at 7:00-8:00 p. m. Sunday. Janice Watson and Betty Ann McDevitt will present a special musical number. A surprise feature will be presented by the pastor. Ted Phillips will lead the discussion.

The Centennial Conference of Rock River annual conference will be held at Freeport Oct. 1-7. Women's Day, Friday, Oct. 4, is to take place at Mt. Morris where a great Centennial Pageant will be given. Youth Day, Oct. 5, will be attended by young people from the entire conference.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service will meet Thursday, Oct. 3, for its installation of officers and important business. More charter enrollments will be made.

World Communion Sunday, Oct. 6, will be celebrated in the Franklin Grove Methodist church. All members of the church are expected to partake of the Holy Communion.

Canvassers are making contact with all members and friends of the church to close the financial year and get pledges for the coming church year. Those who have not made their pledges should hand them to James Lincoln, financial secretary.

A unique form of pledging was introduced in the Unified Service of the Franklin Grove Methodist church during the past two Sundays. Pledge sheets with various forms of service for the church were handed out and filled in by members of the congregation. Ushering, choir, publicity, welcoming, teaching, calling, repairs were among the items of service pledged. A hearty response was made to this form of pledging.

LINCOLN'S LIFE
REENACTED IN
NEW SALEM FETEAudience of 3,000 Sees Pageant Yesterday At Old Village

Lincoln's New Salem, Ill., Sept. 27.—(AP)—New Salem again, in another pregnant hour of history, has given Lincoln to the land he loved and ultimately preserved.

The master champion of democracy and the men and women with whom he passed much of the formative period of his life were portrayed by the descendants of pioneers last night in a folk festival which recaptured the true Lincoln flavor of this historic old village on the Sangamon river.

It was good enough, the spectators thought, to encourage the sponsors' ambition to make the festival a national occasion in future years. An audience of some 3,000 sat through the more than two-hour production, despite an unseasonably cold temperature, and cheered the thoughtful work of the performers, all amateurs, and the skillful handling of the large cast by professional directors.

"Molded for Endurance"

One of Lincoln's better-known biographers has said of him that "all along he was molded for endurance rather than for enjoyment." That might well have served as a text for the folk-pageant and as an inspiration for the impersonation of the younger Lincoln by Edward Mitchell, a filling station operator from near-by Petersburg.

In its simplicity, the universal-ity of its implications, human values and the fusion of colloquialisms and poetic speech, the play, called "Out of the Wilderness," disclosed something of the sensitive quality of Thornton Wilder's "Our Town."

Given in the open, with the foliage still green on the locusts and information about the attacks, rather than use the short-wave radio.

Helen is 26 years old, and her home town is Pekin, Ill. Before she went into radio, she did newspaper work, including assignments to the Ethiopian campaign and the Spanish war.

State Pays $1.68 Per Day to Maintain Each
Mile of Illinois Roads

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 27.—(AP)—Illinois is paying $1.68 a day to maintain each mile of state highway.

Chief Highway Engineer Ernst Lieberman—who said the cost is "low in comparison with most states"—came forth with the daily cost figure after adding up such expenses as snow removal, weed cutting, labor costs, and roadside plantings.

Figuring that the state paid $4,556,000 for maintenance of 13,610 miles of pavements during the first eight months of 1940, Lieberman divided the daily $1.68 per mile as follows:

Maintenance workers' wages 78 cents; new equipments, 30 cents; operating expense, 32 cents; district and bureau overhead, 17 cents; and material 13 cents.

Barrett Raps New Deal
Methods of Distraction

Mound City, Sept. 26.—(Special)—"If the BEST-governed country is the LEAST-governed country, this has been the WORST-governed country for the past eight years," declared George F. Barrett today, when he addressed a large Pulaski county mass meeting.

Barrett continuing, stated: "It's high time the Bureau of Standards developed an instrument to detect a national emergency from a political expedient." In conclusion, Barrett stated: "Every time an attack is made upon the policies of the New Deal our President finds it convenient to declare a national emergency to distract the attention of the people from the fallacy of his political machine and direct it to his camouflage emergency."

LOUISVILLE COLONELS ARE IN TRUE FORM FOR SERIES

Kansas City, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Those pesky Louisville Colonels, who languish through the American Association season like a southern gentleman, then come to life with the cool fall breezes, are true to form in the Shaughnessy playoffs.

The colonels had to win the final game of the season to wind up with a 500 mark, a poor fourth 19 games behind the champion Kansas City Blues. They iced a red hot second place Columbus Red Bird, four games to two, in the first round of the playoffs.

Then they came to Kansas City for the finals to determine the Association representative in the Little World Series against the International League Shaughnessy winner.

The Blues thumped the Colonels 15 times in 22 games in the regular season.

But this is the payoff series, so the Colonels outlasted the Blues 918 in a 10-winning night in 50-degree weather Tuesday night.

The Blues decided that was too chilly, so they hugged fireplaces Wednesday night and passed the second game along to yesterday afternoon.

The mercury reached the high 60's, but the Colonels came racing home in the stretch to win 5-4 in 11 innings and take a commanding two up lead. If the Blues are to get anywhere, they must win four games and lose no more than one in the remainder of the series.

Kansas City gets a final shot at Louisville on home soil this afternoon (3 p. m. CST). Then the clubs go to Colonelville to wind up the four out of seven set-to.

The bake sale held last Sunday in the church basement was well patronized. The sale was under the auspices of the League of the Sacred Heart.

Plans are being made for the Homecoming that will be held in Saint Mary's parish, Walton, on October 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hecker had as dinner guests on last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Matt Burg and family of Aurora. The Burg family also visited at the home of Mrs. Anna Hecker.

The Young Ladies' Sodality held a wiener roast on Tuesday evening in the church basement. There were 21 in attendance. There was a treasure hunt in which there were two sides, Fox and Geese. The Fox side won. A very pleasant time was had by all. A delicious lunch was served, consisting of wieners, buns, potato chips, cookies, marshmallows, pickles and lemonade. At the October meeting the refreshment committee will be Sadie Healy, Leonore and Edna Dempsey and Leone Morrissey and the entertainment committee will be Catherine Lally, Helen Grohens and Jannie Diether. After the refreshments were served all who wished went to the hall to enjoy dancing. The pleasant evening came to a close and much credit is due to those who made it the enjoyable evening it was.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Payne entertained the following guests at their home Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. William Denbo, Mrs. George Anderson and two children, Miss Patricia Warkins, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Payne of Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Payne and daughter of Dixon, Frank McBride, Edward McCoy, Leo and Edward Payne and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Payne and son Billie.

Miss Gertrude Guilfoyle and Miss Sue Basseler of Aurora were dinner guests at the J. P. Brechon home Wednesday. They spent the evening and were supper guests at the James O'Brien home in Waukegan.

The many friends of Donald McCoy will be glad to know that he is recovering from his recent illness. Miss Ruth Oester spent Monday evening at the home of Miss Marie Sharkey. Miss Patricia Fitzpatrick was a Dixon shopper Tuesday. Margaret Conroy and Della
